Program

Feet stay afloat, so shall hope.

If courage is lost, retrieve it; if hope is lost, create another.

Yu grew up in a family renowned for their breathtaking aerial performances, under the strict tutelage of his mother. Despite the rigorous training, Yu questioned the need to so strictly preserve their family's legacy. Following an accident during one of her aerial shows, his mother's spirit began to manifest beside him. The haunting image of her fall became Yu's personal demon, causing him to falter at the climax of every performance. Yu would heed his mother's advice and pray to Tzu-shih-yeh, a deity, for guidance. The deity appears before Yu and transports him to a wonderland, where Yu tries to find a way to awaken his mother and defeat his inner demons. What change will Tzu-shih-yeh's challenge bring to Yu and his family?

Tien Circus Theatre

As Taiwan's trailblazer in circus musical production, Tien Circus Theatre embarked on a transformative journey in 2020. The company, previously known as Glee Performing Art Studio, refocused its artistic direction to create original circus musicals under the visionary leadership of General Director TU Wei-cheng. This innovative fusion of musical theatre and circus skills is designed to ignite the imagination and stimulate creativity, intertwining circus artistry within the narrative of musical storytelling to forge a completely unique form of artistic expression. Committed to broadening the impact of performing arts, Tien Circus Theatre is actively involved in educational and charitable initiatives, striving to weave the arts into the fabric of daily life and promote the ethos that "art is life, and life is art."
